State Law:

“Buyer’s Right “to Cancel”

“if you wish to cancel this contract, you may cancel by mailing a written notice by certified or registered mail to the Racquet club. The notice must say that you do not wish to be bound by the contract and must be delivered or mailed before midnight of the third business day after you sign this contract. After you cancel, the Racquet club may request the return of all contracts, membership cards and other documents of evidence of membership. The notice must be delivered or mailed to:

Manchester Racquet Club
404 W. Center Street
Manchester, CT 06040

“You may also cancel this contract if you relocate your residence further than twenty-five miles from any Racquet club operated by the seller or from any other substantially similar Racquet club which would accept the obligation of the seller. This contract may also be canceled if you die or if the Racquet club ceases operation at the location where you entered into this contract. If you become disabled, you shall have the option of (1) being relieved of liability for payment on that portion of the contract term for which you are disabled or (2) extending the duration of the original contract at no cost to you for a period equal to the duration of the disability. You must prove such disability by a doctor’s certificate, which certificate shall be enclosed with written notice of the disability sent to the Racquet club. The Racquet club may require that you be examined by another physician agreeable to you and the Racquet club at its expense. If you cancel, the fair market value of the services or use of facilities you have already received is due at the time of cancellation.”

To the best of your knowledge, you do not have any physical limitations that would prevent you from taking part in the Racquet club’s programs.
